

IN RE:

ARCEL AYCE

VS

Richard M. Pacheco

* I called the police twice this month (2/2/02 + 2/21/02) claiming I assaulted him by spitting on him. No arrest was made due to lack of physical evidence. The case numbers for both dates are as follows: 2/2/02 (02-016586) + 2/22/02 (02-010325). The respondent also threatens to "blow my mother's" head which he has told her on the phone (2/21/02). My mother resides in St. Louis County and is applying for an order of protection today. The respondent has followed me to St. Louis in the past. Due to his daily threats + the stress his behavior is causing on my 3 year old daughter (not his) I am requesting that I be assisted. The respondent has stated that he will shoot me in the head + then take his own life because he is not going to go to jail. The respondent will create situations, call the police + make false claims in an effort to have me arrested so that as he says, "He can have the last laugh." The respondent ^{is} being a law enforcement officer believes that he can abuse his lawful powers to get what he wants + that he is above the law. The respondent as of today has attempted contacting me approx 3 times today via cell phone calling private.